Welcome to the 2024 Wells County Fact Book, compiled by the staff of News-Banner Publications.

This easy-to-use reference book is filled with a lot of information about the community. You can find out how to contact your local elected officials, find out what there is to do in Wells County, look up which agencies and businesses serve the community, and peruse through agricultural and population data.

We've also included a collection of snapshots around the county from 2023 to showcase local events, venues and activities for residents and visitors of all ages.

This is an annual edition, so we welcome suggestions on how to make this resource even more valuable.

City of Bluffton

Bluffton elects a mayor, seven-member Common Council, a clerk-treasurer and a City Court judge. The mayor heads the executive branch, and the city council is the legislative branch and makes all appropriations.

The Bluffton Common Council is in its first year as a seven-member council.

The mayor appoints two persons to serve with him on the Bluffton Board of Public Works and Safety, which manages the city utilities, authorizes and contracts for purchases, and approves payment of bills.

The clerk-treasurer is the city’s financial officer, issuing checks and serving as secretary for the Common Council and Board of Works.

The City Court judge operates the court, which has jurisdiction on city ordinances and on traffic cases.

The mayor and clerk-treasurer are full-time positions.

BLUFFTON UTILITIES

The city of Bluffton operates three utilities

— electric, water and sewage. Working hours are 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. The city also bills for trash and recycling pickup.

Regular office hours at the Utility Office are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Phone: 824-2500. Emergencies during after-hours and weekends should be reported to the Bluffton Police Department calling 824-3320.

Jon Oman is operations manager of Bluffton Utilities in City Hall, 128 E. Market St. Phone: 824-2500; Email: jon.oman@blufftonindiana.gov

For new residential service, a deposit of $50 is required. If you have a reference from previous utility service or a good credit report, the deposit is only $25. The deposit is refundable when leaving Bluffton Utilities.

A temporary connection to the electric utility is $50.

For sewer and water tap inquiries and fees, contact the Bluffton Utilities office.

CITY ENGINEER

The city is searching for a new city engineer at the time of publication. All related emails should be sent to jon.oman@blufftonindiana.gov until a new engineer is found.

BUILDING COMMISSIONER

Richard Triplett is the city's building commissioner. He has an office at Wells Carnegie Government Annex, 223 W. Washington St. Phone: 824-6068; Email: richard.triplett@blufftonindiana.gov

OTHER CITY SERVICES

The Street Department is at 1205 S. Wayne St., Phone: 824-0714. Tim Simpson is the street commissioner. Email: tim.simpson@blufftonindiana.gov. Working hours are 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

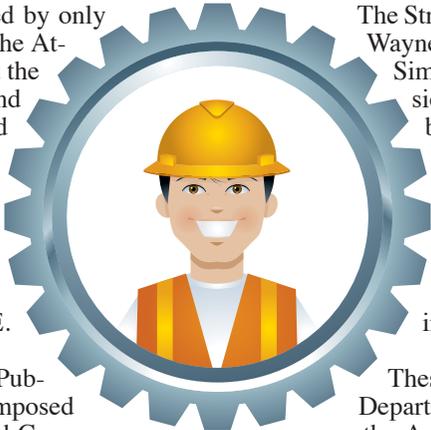

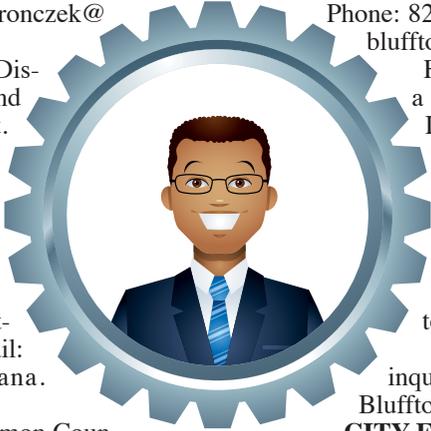

Emergencies after hours and weekends should be reported to the Bluffton Police Department by calling 824-3320.

Brush and Limbs Pickup:

These are collected by the Street Department the first 10 days of the month, April through November, as conditions allow. Brush and limbs should be placed out on the first day of each month. Items are collected as weather and volume permits.

Leaves will be collected in 2024 according to your trash pickup days, with one exception. Part of Wednesday's trash route; homes east of Wayne street will be picked up on the Monday leaf collection schedule.

If your trash/recycling day is Monday and all streets east of Wayne Street, your leaves will be picked up the weeks of Oct. 14 and Nov. 11. If your trash/recycling day is Tuesday, your leaves will be picked up the weeks of Oct. 21 and Nov. 18. If your trash/recycling day is Wednesday, your leaves will be picked up the weeks of Oct. 28 and Nov. 25.

Leaves should be raked to the curb (not into the street) by Monday morning of your pickup week. Crews will make one pass through during that week. If conditions allow and there is a need for additional leaf pickup, crews will continue to pick up leaves the rest of November and into December.

Trash and recycling services are provided by Republic Services. The company's toll-free phone number is 800-876-9001. The garbage and recycling fee is $18.75 per month per residence, with that amount covering both garbage and recycling.

Trash is picked up on the following schedule:

- Monday — Homes north of the river.
- Tuesday — Homes south of the river, west of Wayne Street and north of Wiley Avenue.

Wednesday — Homes south of Wiley Avenue and west of Wayne Street. Also, homes east of Wayne Street.

Recyclables are picked up every other week. The 2024 schedule and map can be download on the city's website or picked up at City Hall.

If a pickup day falls on or follows a holiday, trash and recyclables will be collected on the following day.

Unlimited bagged trash pickup is scheduled for May 6, 7 and 8; Oct. 7, 8 and 9; and Dec. 26, 30 and 31.

Behavior And Recovery Resource Center Of Wells County, office in the Wells Carnegie Government Annex, 223 W. Washington St. in Bluffton. Volunteers staff the office from 10:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Monday and Thursday. The phone number is 824-1514, and the phone has an answering machine.

Assistance can be provided to community organizations on domestic abuse and school programs on bullying, discipline, and student responsibility.

The organization, previously known as the Mental Health Association of Wells County, provides written resources to individuals and is also able to direct individuals to locations where they can obtain treatment. It can provide information on mental health issues and has a literature display at the Wells County-Public Library's main branch in Bluffton.

County Government

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS & COUNTY COUNCIL

Wells County has two elected boards with governmental responsibilities and authority. The three-member Board of County Commissioners is an executive and legislative board. The seven-member Wells County Council is the fiscal arm of county government.

The three Wells County Commissioners are:

Vice President Michael Vanover (R), District 1, which is the southern third of the county, from Ind. 218 to the south county line. Home address: 4620E-900S, Keystone, 273-4950.

Blake Gerber (R), District 2, which is the central third of the county from Ind. 218 to County Road 300N and includes Rockcreek Township. Home address: 707S-Ind. 201, Bluffton, 824-1964.

President Jeff Stringer (R), District 3, which is the northern third of the county, from County Road 300N to the north county line. Home address: 4906N-100W, Uniondale, 577-1338.

All three of the commissioners are elected countywide but they must reside in the district they represent. They are elected for four-year terms. The District 1 commissioner is elected in even-numbered nonpresidential election years. The District 2 and District 3 commissioners are elected in presidential election years. The commissioners redistricted in December 2017 and the decision moved Rockcreek Township out of District 3 and into District 2.

County Government (cont'd)

The seven Wells County Council members include four who are elected from and by council districts and three who are elected county-wide and serve at-large.

District 1 (includes Rock Creek, Liberty, Jackson, Chester and Nottingham townships, as well as Harrison Township excluding the city of Bluffton): Brian Lambert (R), 3831N-100W, Bluffton, 223-3817.

District 2 (includes Lancaster Township and Jefferson Township east of the Ossian town limits): Steve Huggins (R), 1723E-350N, 437-8872.

District 3 (Union Township and Jefferson Township, including Ossian): Todd Mahnensmith (R), P.O. Box 342, Ossian, 433-3838.

District 4 (the city of Bluffton south of the Lancaster Township line): Brandon Harnish (R), 225 Harrison St., Bluffton, 273-1384.

At-Large: Vicki Andrews (R), vice president, 8708S-600W, Warren-90; 375-3131.

At-Large: Scott Elzey (R), 1824 NW Ind. 116-90, Markle, 750-1800.

At-Large: Seth Whicker (R), president, 1191 W. Hancock St., Uniondale, 403-6928.

All council members are elected for four-year terms. The four district council members are elected in even-numbered non-presidential election years.

Only voters in their respective districts vote on the district council members. The three at-large members are elected in presidential election years, and they are elected countywide.

The county commissioners meet in regular session in the lower level meeting room of the Wells Carnegie Government Annex, 223 W. Washington St., Bluffton at 5 p.m. on the first Monday and third Monday of each month, except for county holidays.

They also meet as the Wells County Drainage Board at 4:30 p.m. (unless otherwise noted) on those same days in the same location, and as members of the Wells County Solid Waste District at 4 p.m. on the third Monday of the month, along with other county representatives.

Wells County Council meets in regular session on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of each month at 7 p.m. in the lower level meeting room of the Wells Carnegie Government Annex, 223 W. Washington St., Bluffton. (The schedule changes on holidays and for election week situations.)

County Auditor Lisa McCormick is the secretary for both the commissioners and council. Information for either board can be sent to the Auditor's Office in the Courthouse.

Parks and Recreation

Bluffton Parks and Facilities

Angel of Hope Park, at the corner of Bennett and Wabash streets, is a place for anyone who has lost loved ones to remember them. This setting provides a soothing sound of the water and a view of the beautiful Wabash River. The park includes brick walkways and several benches for those wishing to enjoy the park and remember their loved ones.

Bluffton City Gym is in the back of City Hall, located at 128 E Market Street. Facilities include a basketball court, which is also lined for pickleball, a volleyball court with a scoreboard, a racquetball court, a weight lifting room, restroom facilities, shower rooms, and saunas. The facility is available year-round and is under the leadership of the Bluffton Parks and Recreation Department. Yearly memberships are $95 for a single or $125 for the family and are available for purchase in the Park office in City Hall.

Jefferson Park is a park of 2.1 acres located in the southeast portion of Bluffton, off of Townley and Bennett streets. Facilities include a playground, two T-Ball diamonds, a batting cage, and a concession stand/restroom building.

K-9 Kommons dog park, 805 W. Market St. is a fenced-in park offering a variety of dog obstacles, a few benches, and a picnic table. Key memberships are sold by the year in the Park office and are $25.

Kehoe Park is a 2-acre park along the Wabash River, just west of the south junction of Ind. 1 and Ind. 124. Facilities include a lighted amphitheater, a pavilion with picnic tables, and a restroom building. This is the site of the summer concert series on Friday and Sunday evenings during the summer. The full schedule can be found on the city's website.

Lancaster Park, 200 E. Jackson St., is located on Bluffton's north side off Ind. 1 and includes approximately 17.5 acres. The park is still under construction but consists of a variety of amenities already open to the public, including a walking trail, playground, volleyball courts, football/soccer field, dual-use disco golf/foot golf course, lighted basketball court, gaga ball pit, fire pit, phone charging station, bike air pump station, sledding hill, and pavilion. In 2024, the park will add pickleball courts and improve the parking lot.

Lions Park contains approximately 5.5 acres in the west central part of Bluffton, off Midway and Washington streets. Facilities include a playground, a pavilion with picnic tables and grill, two lighted basketball courts, three lighted tennis/pickleball courts, restrooms, a maintenance building with storage, a lighted baseball diamond, and a T-Ball diamond. The Teen League baseball program for 13- and 14-year-old boys use the field at Lions Park, which used to be Wilson Field, through the years that it was the football field for Bluffton High School.

Pickett's Run is at the intersection of Wayne and East Washington streets. The park has paved paths, picnic tables, benches, wood carvings, a story walk trail, a gazebo, and a historical marker. The park gets its name from the stream that runs through the site. This is the former location of 17 homes that were damaged in the July 2003 flood and had to be removed. Across the street from the park, at the corner of East Washington and Bennett streets, is a splash pad and a life fitness trail of outdoor exercise equipment. The park also has two gazebos.

Rotary Park is a small part of the Rivergreenway corridor off the River Road along the Wabash River in the east part of Bluffton. Facilities include a pavilion with picnic tables, a paved parking lot, and access to the Rivergreenway.

Roush Park, 925 W. Silver St., is an 8-acre park in the southwest part of Bluffton off the Indiana Street/Clark Avenue/Silver Street intersection. Facilities include playground equipment, two lighted baseball diamonds, two lighted softball diamonds, picnic areas, two rentable pavilions (a small one with picnic tables and a larger one), restroom facilities, a storage building, press boxes at the ball diamonds, batting cages, two concessions stands and two basketball courts. A splash pad and a half-mile walking trail were added to the park in 2017. The Farm League for 9- and 10-year-old boys and the Junior League for 11 and 12-year-old boys use the two baseball diamonds. The Junior Girls League for ages 9-12 and the Senior Girls League for ages 13-16 use the two softball diamonds.

Veterans Memorial Park is on Bluffton's south side at the corner of Main and Arnold Streets. This park features memorial gardens, walkways, a gazebo, and park benches. It is the scene of official tributes to those who have served in the nation's defense.

Washington Park, 710 S. Mulberry St., covers approximately 2.6 acres in the southeast part of Bluffton, bordered by Ohio, Mulberry, Arnold, and Bennett streets. A pavilion was added in 2019/2020. Facilities include playground equipment, two 8-foot basketball goals and two lighted 10-foot basketball goals, restrooms, two horseshoe pits, a cornhole game, a Rock Steady boxing gym, an all-seasons indoor facility with a kitchenette that seats 120 (with tables and chairs), a lighted outdoor pavilion with picnic tables and picnic areas. Tennis courts are lined with pickleball and are located near the park on Mulberry St.

Wabash River Park, 225 E. Wabash St., is located at the beginning of the River Greenway Trail Corridor and is about 1/2 acre in size. Facilities included are picnic tables, benches, and a gazebo. Located just west of the park is a covered pavilion with picnic tables and an oversized Adirondack chair, perfect for a fun photo opportunity.

Reforestation Wetlands Project: Some 40,000 native trees and shrub seedlings have been planted on 90 acres of land on the east side of Bluffton, upstream on the north side of the Wabash River. About 2.5 miles of trails currently exist through the native grasses, shrubs, and trees that are establishing a native community and restoring a wetlands area on the former floodplain

Parks and pavilions may be rented by calling the Bluffton Park Department at 824-6069 between 8 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Prices and rental forms are on the Parks Department website blufftonindiana.net. Park hours are from dawn to 11 p.m.

Trails

The Interurban Trail is a paved walking and bicycle trail that starts at the pedestrian bridge over the Wabash River and extends north 2 1/3 miles to the intersection of Main Street (Ind. 1) and Monroe Street. (Wells County Road 200N) where Walmart, Lowe's, and Walgreens are located. The trail runs along the west side of Main Street in front of restaurants and motels, plus other businesses. Approximately one mile will be added from Lowe's to Lancaster Park in 2024.

The River Greenway is a paved walking and bicycling trail that starts at the east end of East Wabash Street in the heart of Bluffton. The trail runs southeast on the banks of the Wabash River on River Road to the White Bridge, a distance of 2.25 miles. The state has extended the trail eastward from the bridge, connecting it to the Ouabache State Park, which links into an extensive park trail. The trail from Bluffton to and through much of the state park is close to 5 miles. The River Greenway features include a boating access site at the east end of the trail near the White Bridge, a replica historic covered bridge, and designated parking lots along the trail. No horses or motorized vehicles are allowed on the River Greenway.

Bluffton Parks — The award-winning Bluffton Park Department has a variety of activities, programs, leagues, concerts, lessons, races, and events for all ages. Information about their programs can be found on the city's website, blufftonindiana.net; on Facebook and X (Twitter), @Bluffton Parks; in weekly articles in The News-Banner; on the digital sign at the Commons parking lot along Main Street, on the sign at Kehoe Park, and by emailing parks@blufftonindiana.gov or calling 824-6069.

Swimming

Wells Community Swimming Pool: The property is about 3.1 acres in size, located at 310 W. Spring St. It has a six-lane 50-meter outdoor swimming pool, is gas heated, with a 1-meter diving board, small tube slide and a 150-foot open flume triple-loop waterslide, plus a concession stand area, restrooms, shower facilities, a sun deck around the pool, playground and a pavilion with picnic tables and grill. The pool and pavilion are open for rental. The Wells Community Pool is managed and operated by the Bluffton Parks and Recreation Department. It opens on Memorial Day weekend and closes in early August. It is available for private rentals. Phone: 824-1550.

Swim lessons and adult lap swim times are available during the pool season.

Other swimming facilities include Kunkel Beach at Ouabache State Park, as listed in the information elsewhere about Ouabache State Park, and the Markle Pool, as listed in the separate information about the town of Markle. grasses, shrubs and trees that are establishing a native community and restoring a wetlands area on the former flood plain farmland.
